Dauphin Workheart

New work reimagined – the Dauphin Workheart concept.

Whether it's home office, back to the office or new work, these slogans have been part of our lives for some time now. But which concept will help us navigate into the future? Or to put it better: Work next?

We joined forces with the innovation agency Dark Horse to develop a concept for the world of work of today, tomorrow and into the future that considers the expectations and needs of companies and their employees in equal measure and offers customized approaches for creating a successful work culture.

The focal point is the office. Yes. Precisely. You heard it right. Although we firmly believe that hybrid work is here to stay, this is also why we are convinced that the office of the future will be needed more than ever as the physical heart of any company. Dauphin Workheart strikes the right balance between productivity and efficiency (= work) and emotionality, authenticity and passion (= heart).

READY TO WORK NEXT?

WHAT WE BELIEVE IN...

HYBRID WORK REMAINS! OPEN SPACE IS DEAD!

When employees go to the office, it's because of:

- work alone in a concentrated manner
- realize projects as a team
- spontaneous exchange, experience corporate culture

THE OFFICE REMAINS AND MUST BE RETHOUGHT AS A PHYSICAL HEART OF THE COMPANY

This is also the focus of employers who:

- want to be attractive to employees
- want employees to identify with the company on a long-term basis
- want to increase innovative power/creativity

OUR CONCEPT PROMISES...

...as much privacy as required, as much engagement and spontaneity as possible and a greater sense of community and identification for EVERYONE

= and thus generates more motivation and satisfaction and entrepreneurial success through greater creativity and innovation.

HOW WE CREATE THIS FOR YOU...

Home@Office

Your retreat for focused work and relaxed breaks.

In the modern, bookable Bosse Cube 4.0, you can not only work productively and with focus, but also enjoy moments of rest and relaxation. The cube provides the ideal environment for uninterrupted and efficient work, thanks to its acoustic and visual shielding, making it perfect for meetings, creative thinking, or concentrated individual tasks. With its ergonomic design and thoughtfully arranged space, it combines the best of home office and workplace, offering you maximum flexibility and comfort.

Experience a new dimension of working with the Bosse Cube 4.0 – your personal office space that feels like home.

Me Space

Your personal retreat for focused work.

The Me Space offers you a dedicated workspace designed to provide the peace and room you need for focused and productive work. Here, you can complete your tasks in an environment created just for you – individually arranged, ergonomically optimized, and perfectly tailored to your needs. Thanks to the thoughtful placement of the Me Space, you have short distances to the team base, where you can easily connect with colleagues for creative exchange or spontaneous meetings at any time.

The Me Space combines personal freedom and teamwork in a way that effortlessly supports both focused individual work and creative collaboration.

Homeoffice

Individuality and functionality in perfect harmony.

Your home office should be more than just a workspace – it's a place where comfort and style blend seamlessly to create an environment that enhances both your productivity and well-being. With personalized design and functional solutions, your home office provides exactly what you need to work efficiently while feeling comfortable at the same time.

Transform your home office into a space where you enjoy spending time and experience the perfect balance between work and living space.

Homezone

Your cozy experience space for meetings and relaxation.

The Homezone is more than just a space – it is a place of comfort and connection, creating a private atmosphere for productive meetings or simply unwinding. With a cozy design, the Homezone offers the perfect setting for informal conversations, shared meals and drinks, or a quick relaxation break.

Experience the Homezone as a space that combines the best of both worlds – work and relaxation in an environment that feels like home.

Music Lounge

Your creative retreat for music and relaxation.

With its stylish design, the Music Lounge invites you to express yourself musically or engage in creative exchanges with others. Here, you can not only unwind but also recharge your energy to return to work with renewed vigor.

The Music Lounge provides you with the space to explore your creative side, relax, and find new inspiration.

Team Base

The home base for your team.

The Teambase is the central hub for your team, a place that offers flexibility and adaptability to meet the diverse needs and sizes of the team. It fosters collaboration, the exchange of ideas, and creativity by creating an open and inviting atmosphere where all team members feel comfortable.

Whether for brainstorming sessions, regular meetings, or informal gatherings, the Teambase effortlessly adapts to the situation thanks to variable workspaces and mobile furniture.

A man in a light blue button-down shirt and dark trousers stands on the left side of the room, gesturing as if presenting. He is looking towards the seated group.
